

Living Proof

Recovery Centers

Find, maintain, and enhance your life in recovery.

With a great deal of respect, dignity and compassion Living Proof can help you find your personal path to a life of recovery.

- Assistance with accessing available resources
- Assistance in referrals to treatment
- Development of a recovery plan
- Wellness classes
- Support groups
- Peer mentoring & coaching
- Educational assistance
- Social and recreational activities
- Connection to sober living resources (for those who meet minimum requirements)
- A sense of community

Living Proof Recovery Centers offer the connection to community you need for sustained recovery.

Peer-led, volunteer driven and designed for people considering, just entering, or already in recovery.
